

This move by Sinclair to force its channels to force their channels to show something nakedly hostile to one presidential candidate is an abuse of the public airwaves, and it would disgrace the FCC to allow it.